February 14th —

His gig before dinner, which much refreshed me, & Mr. Leavemuth accompanied us on horseback. At a late time after dinner, Mr. Wilson, leaving Miss W. & taking Eliza with him, set off home. Shortly after Mr. & Mrs. Dry arrived, & then came Mr. Richard. Harrison. Our visitors all left us during the course of the evening.

March 1849.

Friday 2nd

Apples for sale were gathered to day.

Saturday 3rd

Mr. John Watson brought Eliza back in the morning & gave me an airing in his gig before dinner. In the afternoon he went home taking his niece with him.

Sunday 4th

This day I shall ever remember, it being the 26th anniversary of the sudden death of my wife. The usual party went to Battenhuts church in the morning to attend the communion, returned to dinner & went to Jericho church in the afternoon.

Mr. Dry's best in the morning was from Matth. ^{ch. vi.} VI. ^{vs.} IX. & in the afternoon from Jas. ^{ch. vi.} IV. ^{vs.} XI.
Catharine was taken to Park Farm, instead of coming home, & very unpleasant
the news of her departure was to me.

Monday 5th

Mr. Harrison called & sat
a while in the afternoon.

Tuesday 6th

Mr. John Wilson called complaining of the bad conduct of the gardener.
John was sent to the Blue Hills to cut thistles. Cath. returned from Park Farm accompanied by Miss Pike, & Mr. S. came in the evening to take his daughter home.
